Dear Friends:

Life-saving treatments, innovative research, improving the life of a child suffering from a debilitating disease – these are just a few of the many good reasons for supporting The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia. Exciting medical breakthroughs are happening every day at CHOP, and your donation plays a key role in making that happen.

Your gift to CHOP is ensuring that our young patients and their families are receiving the best possible medical care. Above all, your support is giving so many children the greatest gift – childhood. We could not do this without you.

Thank you for making a difference in the lives of children.
